YEARLINGS AT MONTREAL

INCREASING NUMBERS INDICATE GROWING INTEREST IN THE THOROUGHBRED THERE.

veral Newcomers in Racing Figure Among Owner of Quebec Youngsters-Capt. W. F. Presgrave Takes Some South to Winter and Train.

Montreal, Que., December 5.—Never in the history of thoroughbred racing in the province of Quebec has a better bred band of coming two-year-olds been sent into winter quarters than in Montreal this seasen. There are twenty-three in the lot and it is safe to say that there is not one of them but can boast of the blood of Derby winners in their veins, although in some cases it many be many generations back. Of the number C. S. Campbell, who has been most successful with two-year-olds in the past few years, has five, three of which are to remain in Canada and two of which will be developed in the south for early spring racing and will likely be wintered at the farm of Capt. W. F. Presgrave, at Salisbury. Maryland, along with one owned by A. E. Ogilvie.

In former years it was the custom of many of the breeders and qwners to turn out their yearlings without breaking them. This autumn all of those to be developed were broken and given usual work. Captain Presgrave being responsible for the breaking of eleven of them. This province has made rapid strides within the past three or four years in the breeding industry, and is fast coming to its own, so that in the near future Quebec will rank with Ontario from a breeding standpoint.

This was well proven last fall at the meeting of the Montreal Jockey Club by the starters in the King's Plate and the Provincial Nursery Stakes. Both brought out a better class than in former years and the quality will show marked improvement again next season.

The majority of the foals of 1911, which will become two-year-olds on the first day of January, have been named and registered, which makes them eligible to race at any time after that date. Many appropriate names have been chosen for them and there has not been one rejected by the New York Jockey Club, which is recognized as the registry office for all thoroughbreds. The three owned by A. E. Ogilvie are as sine a looking lot as could be well imagined. The pick of this trio is Dublin Girl, a chest-nut filly by Dublin—Ballet Girl. Thi

With few exceptions, the yearlings included in the above list are by Canadian Breeding Bureau stalions and on that account, local interest in their development is keen.

Owing to the death of Dublin and the removal of Mesmerist from Montreal, the Canadian Breeding Bureau has arranged to place three thoroughbred staflions at the disposal of local breeders for the 1913 season. The sires selected are: Athel, by Atheling, dam Retribution, by Reform: King Cobalt, by Cesarion, dam Estelle Whitney, and Oiseau, by Orrous, dam Kitty Gunn, by Virgil.

In other parts of Quebec the following thorough bred sires, which are being mated with cold-blooded mares under bureau rules, will also be at the disposal of owners of thoroughbred mares in different parts of the province: Beau Gallant at Lavigne; Valjean at Deschenes; Reidmoore at Murray Bay; Firebug at Herdman; Light Wool at West Brome; Earl Rogers at Fort William; Bine Book in Montrougher County; Pink Coat at Calumet; Call Boy at Bagotville, and Little Friar at Danville.

Equal attention has been paid to Ontario, and there the bureau work is progressing rapidly. Every bureau stallion placed in the province of Ontario passed the rigid test imposed by the federal government this year. Among the National Burcau sires now in Ontario are such well-known thoroughbreds as Martin Doyle, Angler, Charlie Gilbert, Royal Oak, O'Keefe, Stringency, Bosemount and Workbox,

FEATURES OF RECENT RACING IN ENGLAND

London. Eng., November 18.—With the Warwick and Manchester autumn meetings to furnish the entertainment, the flat racing season of this year in England will come to an end at Manchester next Saturday. It has been a good racing year with a goodly array of sensations of its own, not the least being the capture of the Two Thousand and the St. Leger by the American-bred and owned colts Sweeper II. and Tracery, respectively. Naturally, the racing of late has not been up to the standard of the more important succession of first class meetings which came to an end with the Newmarket Houghton meeting, but for all that it has not been without its interesting features and surprises. For instance, at Newbury last Friday Lance Chest was confidently expected to win the Ormonde Stakes at a mile and was a well-supported favorite at 7 to 4, while Castleton was expected to furnish the most dangerous opposition and accordingly was second choice at 3 to 1. It chanced that among the eight starters was a chestnut colt by Cyllene belonging to Lord Durham that had never before started in a race. His name is Antravida and he had no separate quotation in the betting, being one of the outside division of which one could take his pick at the nominal rate of 100 to S. But he was anything but an outsider when it came to the running of the race, for, going to the front when half the distance had been covered, he drew away steadily and swon in a canter by five lengths in front of Mohacz, the Duke of Portland's Honastir finishing third, with the two favorites beaten off. It was the last race of the year of considerable value for three-year-olds exclusively. Antravida had all the allowances, being a maiden, and only carried 107 pounds, while Lance Chest had up 133 and Mohacz and Castleton 131 each. Some good people who thought this race a certainty for Lance Chest suffered through their misplaced confidence. In fact, the Newbury Autumn Handicap, at a mile and a half, had Lavolt and Rivoli for its favorites, but fell to the 10 to 1 outsider Lad and Rivoli for its favorites, but fell to the 10 to 1 outsider Lady Elleen, of which much had been expected in several previous races without favorable results.

By far the most important event of the week was the decision of the Derby Cup, of a mile and six furlongs at Derby last Thursday. This race was of the valte of $6,625 to the winner and was contested by sixteen fair class handleap horses including the American-bred Election, Daimatian and Columbus, in an open betting market Papavero, Lorenzo and Shanballymore were the favorites but neither was placed, the winner turning up in the Flying Lemur mare Aye Aye, which won by a neck from Wagstaff, with Marcolico third and Election a close-up fourth. Flying Lemur, sire of the winner, is a brother to the famous horse Flying Fox and may prove a successful sire in time.

Antravida, which made such a highly successful first appearance on a race course, is the first of the produce of his dam, Renunciation, that has run. She had two foals previously, but her filly of 1907 died, and the colt of the following season was destroyed. Renunciation is a St. Frusquin mare, her dam. White Vell, by Muncaster—Novitiate, by Hermit, Novitiate was the dame of Marco.

Joseph Hyams, who has trained with considerable success in Austria, saddled the winner at Derby Wednesday of the Elvaston Castle Plate. He quite recently commenced to train at Epsom for Douglas Stuart, and this was his first success on the English turf. The winner, Miss Douglas, originally named Erin go Brazh, is an American filly by Peter Pan—Maid of Erin, and was purchased out of Joyner's stable for $2,000. It took $2,500 to retain her, and, as she scored in runaway fashion from the Amuletta filly and the Laila filly, Hyams, has evidently got her into very smart trim.

The death occurred at the Johannesburg General Hospital on October 26, of S. H. Purcell. Purcell had contracted pneumonia and his case was hopeless from the first. He went to that country twenty-two years ago and at different times won all the princip

Jessica, the winner of the New Biennial Stakes at Ascot this year, has been retired from racing and will be put to the stud. She has been recently purchased by Lady James Douglas at a substantial price, and will probably be mated with Rock Sand next year.

The three-year-old, Maritza, by William the Third, out of Marmarica, ran her last race in the Allestree Handicap at Derby, and she goes to F. Gretton's breeding stud. She won the Dee Stakes at Chester this year, but was not successful in her first season. The Cesarewitch winner, Warlingham, was in striking distance of the leaders in the Derby Cup when he received a bump right and left, which not only put him out of court, but nearly knocked his jockey out of the saddle. He was also badly struck into and cut about.

A. H. Ledlie has decided to send up the helf.

jockey out of the saddle. He was also badly struck into and cut about.

A. H. Ledlie has decided to send up the half-brother and half-sister, Lord Belvoir and Lady Americus, for sale at the Newmarket December Sales. They are out of the famous broodmare, Palotta, Lord Belvoir being by Desmond and Lady Americus by Americus and both winners of important stakes.

By reason of recent success at Liverpool. Derby and a minor meeting or two Lord Derby has passed Messrs. Raphael and Hulton and now appears to be securely lodged in second place in this year's list of owners who have stable earnings of $15,000 or more. It has been a long and interesting contest for second place and only decided within the last ten days, New arrivals in the list are R. Wootton and G. A. Prentice and other owners who have increased their stable accounts are E. Hulton, S. Joel, L. de Rothschild, J. Buchanan, A. F. Bassett, H. M. Hartigan, R. Mills, W. H. Walker, Lord Lonsdale, Lord Durham and D. McCalmont. With but a week more of racing to be dispatched before the flat racing season of 1912 comes to a close, the list of lucky owners referred to is now as follows:

Since the list of horses which have won $12,500 or more was last published, not one of them has started in a race, for the sufficient reason that without an exception these stars of the racing of 1912 have been sent into winter quarters to rest until the campaign of 1913 begins at Lincoln next March. Quite probably the decision of the Manchester November Handicap next week will bring one more horse into the list, which now remains as follows:

The next batch of figures will be those for the whole campaign. Prince Palatine enabled Persimmon to depose Cyllene from the leadership some weeks ago, but the latter is slowly but surely creeping up again, and it is more than probable that he will have won his third championship by the hour the curtain falls at Manchester. Only a little more than $2.000 divides Persimmon and Cyllene now, and there are still undoubted possibilities about both Desmond and St. Frusquin. LAYERS HAVE A BAD DAY

WELL BACKED HORSES SCORE AT LUCRATIVE ODDS IN JUAREZ RACES.

Shorty Northcut, Dan Norton and Beda Make Up Course Lose Heavily.

El Paso, Tex., December 5.—While favorites did not fare especially well at the Juarez track today, the layers reported a disastrous experience, as the winners included three good priced horses that were heavily supported by their admirers. These lacinded Dan Norton. Shorty Northcut and Beda. Shorty Northcut, which has been racing well on the Oklahoma and Texas circuit, made good in making his initial appearance here. He was capably ridden by jockey B. Steele.

Truly, the beaten favorite of the first race encountered bad racing luck, being on the rail and getting cut off early in the running. Her chance of winning was destroyed before they had gone an eighth of a mile.

A party of twenty or more distinguished gentlemen and capitalists from the cast, several of whom are financially interested as stockholders in the new Paso Del Norte Hotel, were guests of Col. M. J. Winn at the track today. They were escorted across the border by Gen. U. Z. Steerer of the United States Army and Mayor Kelly of El Paso. Colonel Winn named the six races comprising today's card in honor of their visit. Among them were Charles L. Stone, Lloyd P. Wells, J. D. Perry, A. L. Shapleigh, Thomas W. Bennett and Phil C. Scanlon of Buffalo, Accompanying the above was Norman B. Mack, chairman of the New York delegation that was sent to San Francisco to select the site for the New York building at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition.

Jack Alkins, owner of the Burbank Stable, has engaged jockey Dave Nicol to ride his horses during the Juarez meeting.

P. C. Nash, a well-known business man of Vancouver, B. C., who has recently purchased a few horses, has come here for the winter.

Ed. Shelton of Spokane and one of the principal stockholders in the Cocur d'Alene Fair and Racing Association, was a visitor at the course today. He expects to remain indefinitely.

Alf, Scheftel arrived from Norfolk in advance of bookmaker Henry Hanff, who is expected in a few with Ea

The Norfolk shipment to Charleston will be made up of 270 horses.

The Belgian trainer. J. de Neuter, saddled 158 winners this year.

W. F. Schuite is again to serve as presiding judge at Charleston, and James Milton will do the starting. Onatassa died at Juarez a few days ago from the effects of cold contracted in shipment to the Mexican course.

The price paid for Bronzino, recently sent from England to Australia, is said to be $62,400, making him the highest priced sire ever imported to that country.

Charles Kobler's Novelty won the Prix du Lauraguais, run at Enghien, in France, Tuesday. Six other horses competed. Jockey V. Powers rode the American winner.

R. E. Watkins' horses are quartered for the winter in the stable at Sheepshead Bay formerly occupied by Louis V. Bell. Max Hirsch, who has War' Horn. Taboo, Big Dipper and Jonquil in his string, will winter his horses in the old Joyner stable on the Neck Road at the Bay.

Word comes from Lima, Peru, that jockey Englander, who used to ride in this country, has established a steam laundry at Lima and is doing a good business. It is the only steam laundry in the South American city and proved such a winner that he has also established a suspender factory.

FRANK O'NEILL NOW WELL-TO-DO.

New York. December 5.—Frankie O'Neil, the American Jockey who rides in France for William K. Vanderbilt, arrived here yesterday with his wife and two children on the Kronprinzeshi Cecilie to spend the holidays with his relatives in St. Louis. O'Neili is going back on January 4 to get into condition again for the next riding season, which starts on the French tracks on March 11. O'Neili said Mr. Vanderbilt had had a successful season on the French tracks.

Vanderbilt and had a stables are about sixty-five horses. Trainer Duke is still with the Vanderbilt string and is not coming back here this winter. O'Nell rode 570 or 580 races, of which he won 135. He finished second so many times he did not bother to keep account of them. O'Nell has earned nearly $600,000 since he has been in France.

TRAINING THE PIPING ROCK YEARLINGS.

New York, December 5.—Of the fifty subscription thoroughbred yearlings to be raced during next year's spring and autumn meetings of the Piping Rock Racing Association at Locust Valley, L. I., twenty-five are in charge of trainer William R. Midgely at the Belmont Park track. The others in the big collection which was recently distributed are wintering at various private racing quarters on Long Island.

Of the band of youngsters handled by Mr. Midgely the majority are filles. Sixteen of the twenty-five are of the feminine sex, six are coits, and three are geldings.

Conditions for breaking and training yearlings are ideal at Belmont Park, and it is reasonable to expect that at least twenty of the lot now handled by Midgely will remain in his hands until the opening of the racing season.

The yearlings housed in the Midgely barn include the following:

MRS. PAYNE WHITNEY'S STABLE.

New York, December 5.—Mrs, Payne Whitney is wintering seven horses at Belmont Park in the inclosed barn No. 18, which faces the Hempstead road. Of this collection four are two-year-olds, foaled at James R. Keene's Castleton Stud in Kentucky. The three-older horses are Web Carter, Winkle and three older horses are Web Carter, Winkle and Boisterous.

James Owens, for many years a leading steeple-chase rider in this country, England, Ireland, France and Belgium, is handling Mrs. Whitney's horses. The two-year-olds are a particularly good type for cross-country racing. Mrs. Whitney some time ago decided to "make" her steeplechasers when they were two-year-olds. For this reason trainer Owens gave the juvenile jumpers a long, slow preparation, commencing with five weeks' tuition in a corral. The aptness shown by the youngsters was amazing and in the early autumn they were ridden by experienced steeplechase jockeys over several fences on the schooling grounds and showed up promisingly.

Delicious is a rapid going filly and while she fairly files at her fences is not a "chancy" jumper. She is the speediest of the lot. Ballet moves in the steady-going manner of a Bramble. Her sire, Ben Brush, was one of the most famous sons of that noted sire, and he has transmitted his frictionicss stride to this filly.

True Heart and Summary have the size, substance and bone of weight carriers, and their action and clean, fast jumping are indicative of high-class per formances under colors.

Winkle, the five-year-old brown son of Bitter Root—Attainment, went into winter quarters in excellent condition. Winkle's winning races this year were in the Between the Flags Cup at Belmont Park Terminal: the Challenge Cup at the Country Club meeting, Brookline, Mass., and the Dosoris Plate at the meeting of the Piping Rock Association.

Web Carter, which despite a light barrel and general lack of stoutness, carries weight remarkably well, is now eight years old. The bay son of Mentone and Amphora ran his best race this season when at Belmont Park Terminal he won the Retribution Challenge Cup, defeating Charles Pfizer's great steeplechaser, Herculoid, wheb Carter's other winning race was over the course of the Millbrook Hunt Association.

Boisterous, the three-year-old chestnut daughter of Hamburg—Hurly Burly, thus a sister to the celebrated race horse and sire, Burgomaster, was raced on the dat during the season just closed. She has been put through her paces on the schooling grounds and her racing in future will be confined to jumping. The snap and vim displayed by Boisterous in her initial trial led her exercise boy to remark. "Say, she sure is a bird in the air."

Charles L. Appleton will ride in the events exclusively for gentlemen riders, while the professional jockeys, Tommy O'Brien and Otto Heider, will do the "booting" in other races.

FLAW IN SOUTH CAROLINA LAW.

Clerical Error Said to Have Been Made in Anti-Racing Measure Passed by Last Legislature.

Racing Measure Passed by Last Legislature.

The Charleston News and Courier, in referring to the meeting of the Charleston Fair and Racing Association, scheduled to open at Palmetto Park Jamury 25, makes the following comment:

"It has been reported with considerable confidence for some months past that a race meeting would be held in this city this winter, in spite of the fact that those who actively opposed the races succeeded in their efforts to have a law against race track gambling passed by the Legislature at its last session. The stimation as it now exists is an interesting one. Race track gambling has been declared illegal, but a race meeting is to be held. Under the law as it is generally understood it will be impossible for the race meeting to be conducted as race meetings are usually conducted, that is to say, with bookmakers operating in connection with the Association and with betting on the races as an important part of the sport.

"Officials of the Association had nothing to say yesterday for publication and no authorative statement of their view of the legal status of affairs could be obtained for print. It is generally understood however, that as soon as the Legislature convenes, on January 10, the racing interests will make an effort to have the time extended. This limit was fixed by the autirace track gambling law extended. This limit was fixed by the law passed at the last session as July 1, 1912. It is reported that the racing interests will endeavor to have the time extended uniff May 1, 1913. If this is done it is the plan of the racing promoters, according to common report, to make an effort to secure the enactment of a new law, similar to that in effect in Kentucky, which will provide for the creation of a racing commission. It is stated that the law as it now stands on the statute books will have to be changed in any event, since a clerical error caused the law to be entered on the books will have to be changed in any event, since a clerical error caused the law to be entered on the pr

COVERS TURF TOPICS THOROUGHLY.

A limited number of the 1912 edition of the American Racing Manual remain available for distribution. The 1912 Manual is unquestionably a better book than any of its predecessors, having been enriched by the addition of new features, while at the same time all the old features are retained. This publication, which is annually in great demand among those interested in the turf, is an excellent and low-priced book of 440 pages, holding information obtainable in no other publication. It is simply a mine of records. Among its features are: Exposition of Method for Calculating Parl-Mutuel Prices, with Examples.

THE KOHLER STRING OF YEARLINGS.

New York, December 5.—Of the twenty-six thoroughbreds belonging to Charles Kohler quartered at Sheepshead Bay, twenty-four are yearlings and the other two two-year-olds, the working part of the Kohler establishment now being raced in France under the direction of Samuel C. Hildreth, from whom Mr. Kohler made his most important purchases.

The Kohler horses have ideal quarters for the cold months. The stable is equipped with a glass inclosed shed that makes possible moderate galloping exercise around the barns themselves in all sorts

In addition to this lot there is an Uncle colt, and the two-year-olds in the lot are Chopin and Fadoodle. These two were left in this country when Sam Hildreth sailed away for France with everything else in the barn that was considered worth while to go to the races in France.

PLANNING FOR MUTUELS AT PIMLICO.

Baltimore, Md., December 5.—No changes were at the annual meeting of the Maryland Jockey Club at the annual meeting of the organization. William M. Manly was re-elected president, Gen. A. E. Booth vice-president, C. E. McLane treasurer and William P. Riggs secretary. Three new members of the board of governors were chosen to fill vacancies, namely. Michael Sheehan, Thomas Clyde and C. I. Reynolds.

Routine business matters were disposed of, while the introduction of pari-mutuel betting machines for the next race meeting in the spring was also discussed. No definite action was taken, as the new system of betting has been entirely left in the hands of a special committee that will meet in January, when the cost of the installation of the machines, etc., will be put before the club. This committee is composed of William M. Manly, ex-officio member; General Booth, Capt. W. F. Presgrave and R. J. Walden.

The pari-mutuel system of betting will be in Walden.

The pari-mutuel system of betting will be in vogue in future at the "Hilltop," and it is said that plans are under way for the construction of a new betting shed of concrete and glass to accommodate the machines that the Maryland Jockey Club Intends to use. Pari-mutuel betting means the passing of the bookmaker at Pimlico.

New York, December 5.—Peter Pan, the great stallion owned by James R. Keene, has not been sold for $100,000. Mr. Keene sald today that the horse is still his property, although he is in the market for a buyer. Peter Pan will be shipped abroad on Saturday in company with the seven marres which Mr. Keene recently sold to W. K. Vanderbilt for $60,000.
"North America is no longer a place to keep a valuable horse," said Mr. Keene. "The citizens of the United States apparently do not care whether or not there are horses here capable of supplying the Army with sultable mounts in case of war. I don't blame breeders for selling their stallions and broodmares to foreigners. I have not decided where I shall locate Peter Pan, but he will go either to England or France."

Mr. Keene, it was learned, has had many offers for Peter Pan, but up to date has rejected all the tenders.

PEDA, differently ridden today and showing sudden improvement, went to the front at once and, showing great speed, easily won all the way. SIR ALVESCOT began slowly and had to come around on the outside, but closed a gap in gallant fashion and made a fast finish. PARLOR BOY was a forward contender all the way, but was tiring in the final strides. GOLD OF OPHIR made a fast stretch effort. COUNTRY BOY showed early speed and ran in closest pursuit to the homestretch. ANNE McGEE ran well for a half.
